until one night in September 1997. I am not sure of date a lot of TIFFANY Boxes came through. This time [ ] approached me again and asked me if I remembered what he told me about making money. I told him ok I would give it a shot. IT was very simple all I had to do was open the boxes and empty them giving him [ ] the contents. In exchange he told me to trust him and that he would pay me half of what he makes when he sells IT. HE NEVER told me where he was going to sell the jewelry. I NEVER REALLY know exactly what is in the boxes because I do not UNWRAP them. I JUST GAVE IT to [ ] in the wrapping. I WAS AFRAID OF getting caught. After removing the merchandise the boxes were sent through empty. [ ] made me feel comfortable about it because he said it was impossible to trace it back because it went through so many hands. He also told me they expect you to steal because everything is insured. I remember another box that was in a plastic bag. [ ] cut it open and GAVE me the box in the can and told me to open it. I did and removed what was in the box. It was wrapped up in bubble wrap I JUST GAVE [ ] the whole thing. Then on 11/12/97 at around 11:55 PM [ ] pointed out a TIFFANY Box AWB# 7478861810 the box was already in the can. I opened it and gave [ ] everything that was in the box. This was the last time I did this because he was not paying me like he said he would. After this I wanted to change my shift

The undersigned has investigated the above cases with the following results:

09/03/97      AWB# 9009186406

This shipment was sent from JFK to South Plainfield, NJ. The shipment was loaded into a container at JFK and sent by truck to Newark, NJ. The package was discovered at Newark by the Ramp Supervisor to have been opened and the contents removed. Prior to being loaded in the container at JFK the shipment was inspected by Security. This indicates the shipment had to have been violated at JFK by personnel assigned to load the containers.

09/03/97      AWB# 9000186491

This shipment was sent from JFK to Moonachie, NJ. The shipment was inspected by Security and loaded into container #AAA3439 for transport via truck to NJ. The container is sealed at JFK and inspected upon arrival at the service center. The shipment was missing from the container. The container is in the process of being loaded for three to four hours and it is only at that point the shipment could be stolen. Again only the JFK personnel assigned to load the containers would have the opportunity to take the shipment.

09/17/97      AWB# 8935245863

This shipment was sent from JFK to London, UK. The shipment was inspected by Security and loaded into container AAU95131 for transport via British Air to London. The shipment was found open in the container upon arrival at the airport (LHR) in London. In this instance the container is a curtain type and is not sealed. The most likely personnel responsible for the loss are those at JFK who load the containers due to the fact that they have knowledge of the contents. In addition the packages tend to be buried among hundreds of other packages making it difficult for anyone to locate the package.

10/03/97      AWB# 7417744736 & AWB# 7417744740

These two packages were loaded into a container (AMA8395LH) destined for Cologne, Germany. The two packages were inspected by security and brought to the container for loading by DHL personnel. The boxes contained various types of gold jewelry including 740 forty gold crosses in individual boxes. These two boxes were discovered in a container sent to Newark, NJ. inside a green letter bag that contained three other letter bags (empty) with marking indicating they were from JFK. The boxes had been cut open and contents removed. The only way these boxes could have been put in the NJ container was by JFK personnel assigned to the container loading area.

10/07/97      AWB# 9009196490 & AWB# 9009197002

These two packages were loaded into a truck for transport to Boston. Security inspected the shipments prior to there being loaded into the truck. These shipments were not scanned as arrived at Boston. The truck is sealed by security and inspected upon arrival by the Operations Supervisor at Boston. These shipments are handled by DHL personnel loading the truck at JFK.

11/12/97      AWB# 7478861810 & AWB# 7490527310

These two packages were loaded at JFK into Container #AAU95081BA for transport to LHR via British Air. Security inspected the boxes prior to there being loaded into the container. Upon arrival at LHR shipment #810 was found to have been opened and contents removed. Shipment #310 was found to have been opened but the contents appeared to be intact. The personnel loading the container at JFK would have the most opportunity to open and steal the contents.

The shipments described herein are shipped under an internal security process titled "CTS" which is "Controlled Transit Shipment". The shipments are monitored and inspected at origin, transit points and destination. The Security Officers assigned to JFK monitor closely the movement of these shipments and for that reason it has been determined that the thefts took place at DHL's JFK Gateway.

Submitted for your information and consideration.

Re: 15B-NY-264945, 10/02/1998

The jewelry boxes (including the inner boxes) were recovered and sent to the FBI Laboratory for the presence of latent fingerprints. Additionally, fingerprints of the four suspects were submitted to the same laboratory for comparison to any latent prints found on the boxes. The jewelry boxes, especially the inner boxes, should not bear the fingerprints of any DHL employee because they were packaged by Tiffany's employees at their warehouse.

The following items are being sent to the 1A section of the file:

-A copy of [ ] written statement;

-PAPD CCR and Follow-up CCR; and

-Various PAPD arrest process documents relating to [ ]

The writer will assume a TDY assignment at Legat, Ottawa for seventy-three days beginning on 10/3/98. Therefore, it is requested that the captioned matter be placed in a pending inactive status.
